Senior Wills

Marlyce Aurich wills her quick temper to LaVera Reinmuth, and her eyes she wills to Willa Mae Gilgren.

John Beyer wills his good grades to Anna Faye Weed, and his behavior he wills to Lloyd Kettler.

Joetta Davis bequeaths her tact to Mary Lou Van Anne. She also wills her flirting ability to Jo Ann Willeke.

Ruth Delcamp wills her slimness to Carol Bayne. Her good grades in chemistry she leaves to Bob Beyer. Keep 'em up there, Bob.

Jerry Dykman wills his ability to get dates with the girls to Lloyd Kettler, and his ability to keep classes in an uproar to Bob Beyer.

Coralee Farrington bequeaths her extra pounds to Edith Boyer.

Marvin Galé bequeaths his hunting ability to Judy Pelster, and his Ford to Kathy Pelster.

Phyllis Harris wills her height to Betty Gillespie, and her ability not to stretch things she leaves to Anna Faye Weed.

Floyd Hutzenbiler leaves his size 42 football pants to Danny Delcamp and Herb Klinge in hopes that together they can fill them.

Gerald Klemke wills his dancing ability to LeRoy Hutzenbiler.

Myrna Kragel bequeaths her tendency to blush easily to Kayo Cape, and her sedate walk she wills to Carol Heine.

Kenneth Lorenz wills his curly hair to Judy LeBar, and his ability to learn the game of football fast to Lyle Graff.

George Roberts claims that anything he has wouldn't be worth much to anyone else, so he'll just keep what he has.

Frances Saathoff wills her long hair to Jo Ann Willeke, and her roller skates she leaves to Bill Marrin.

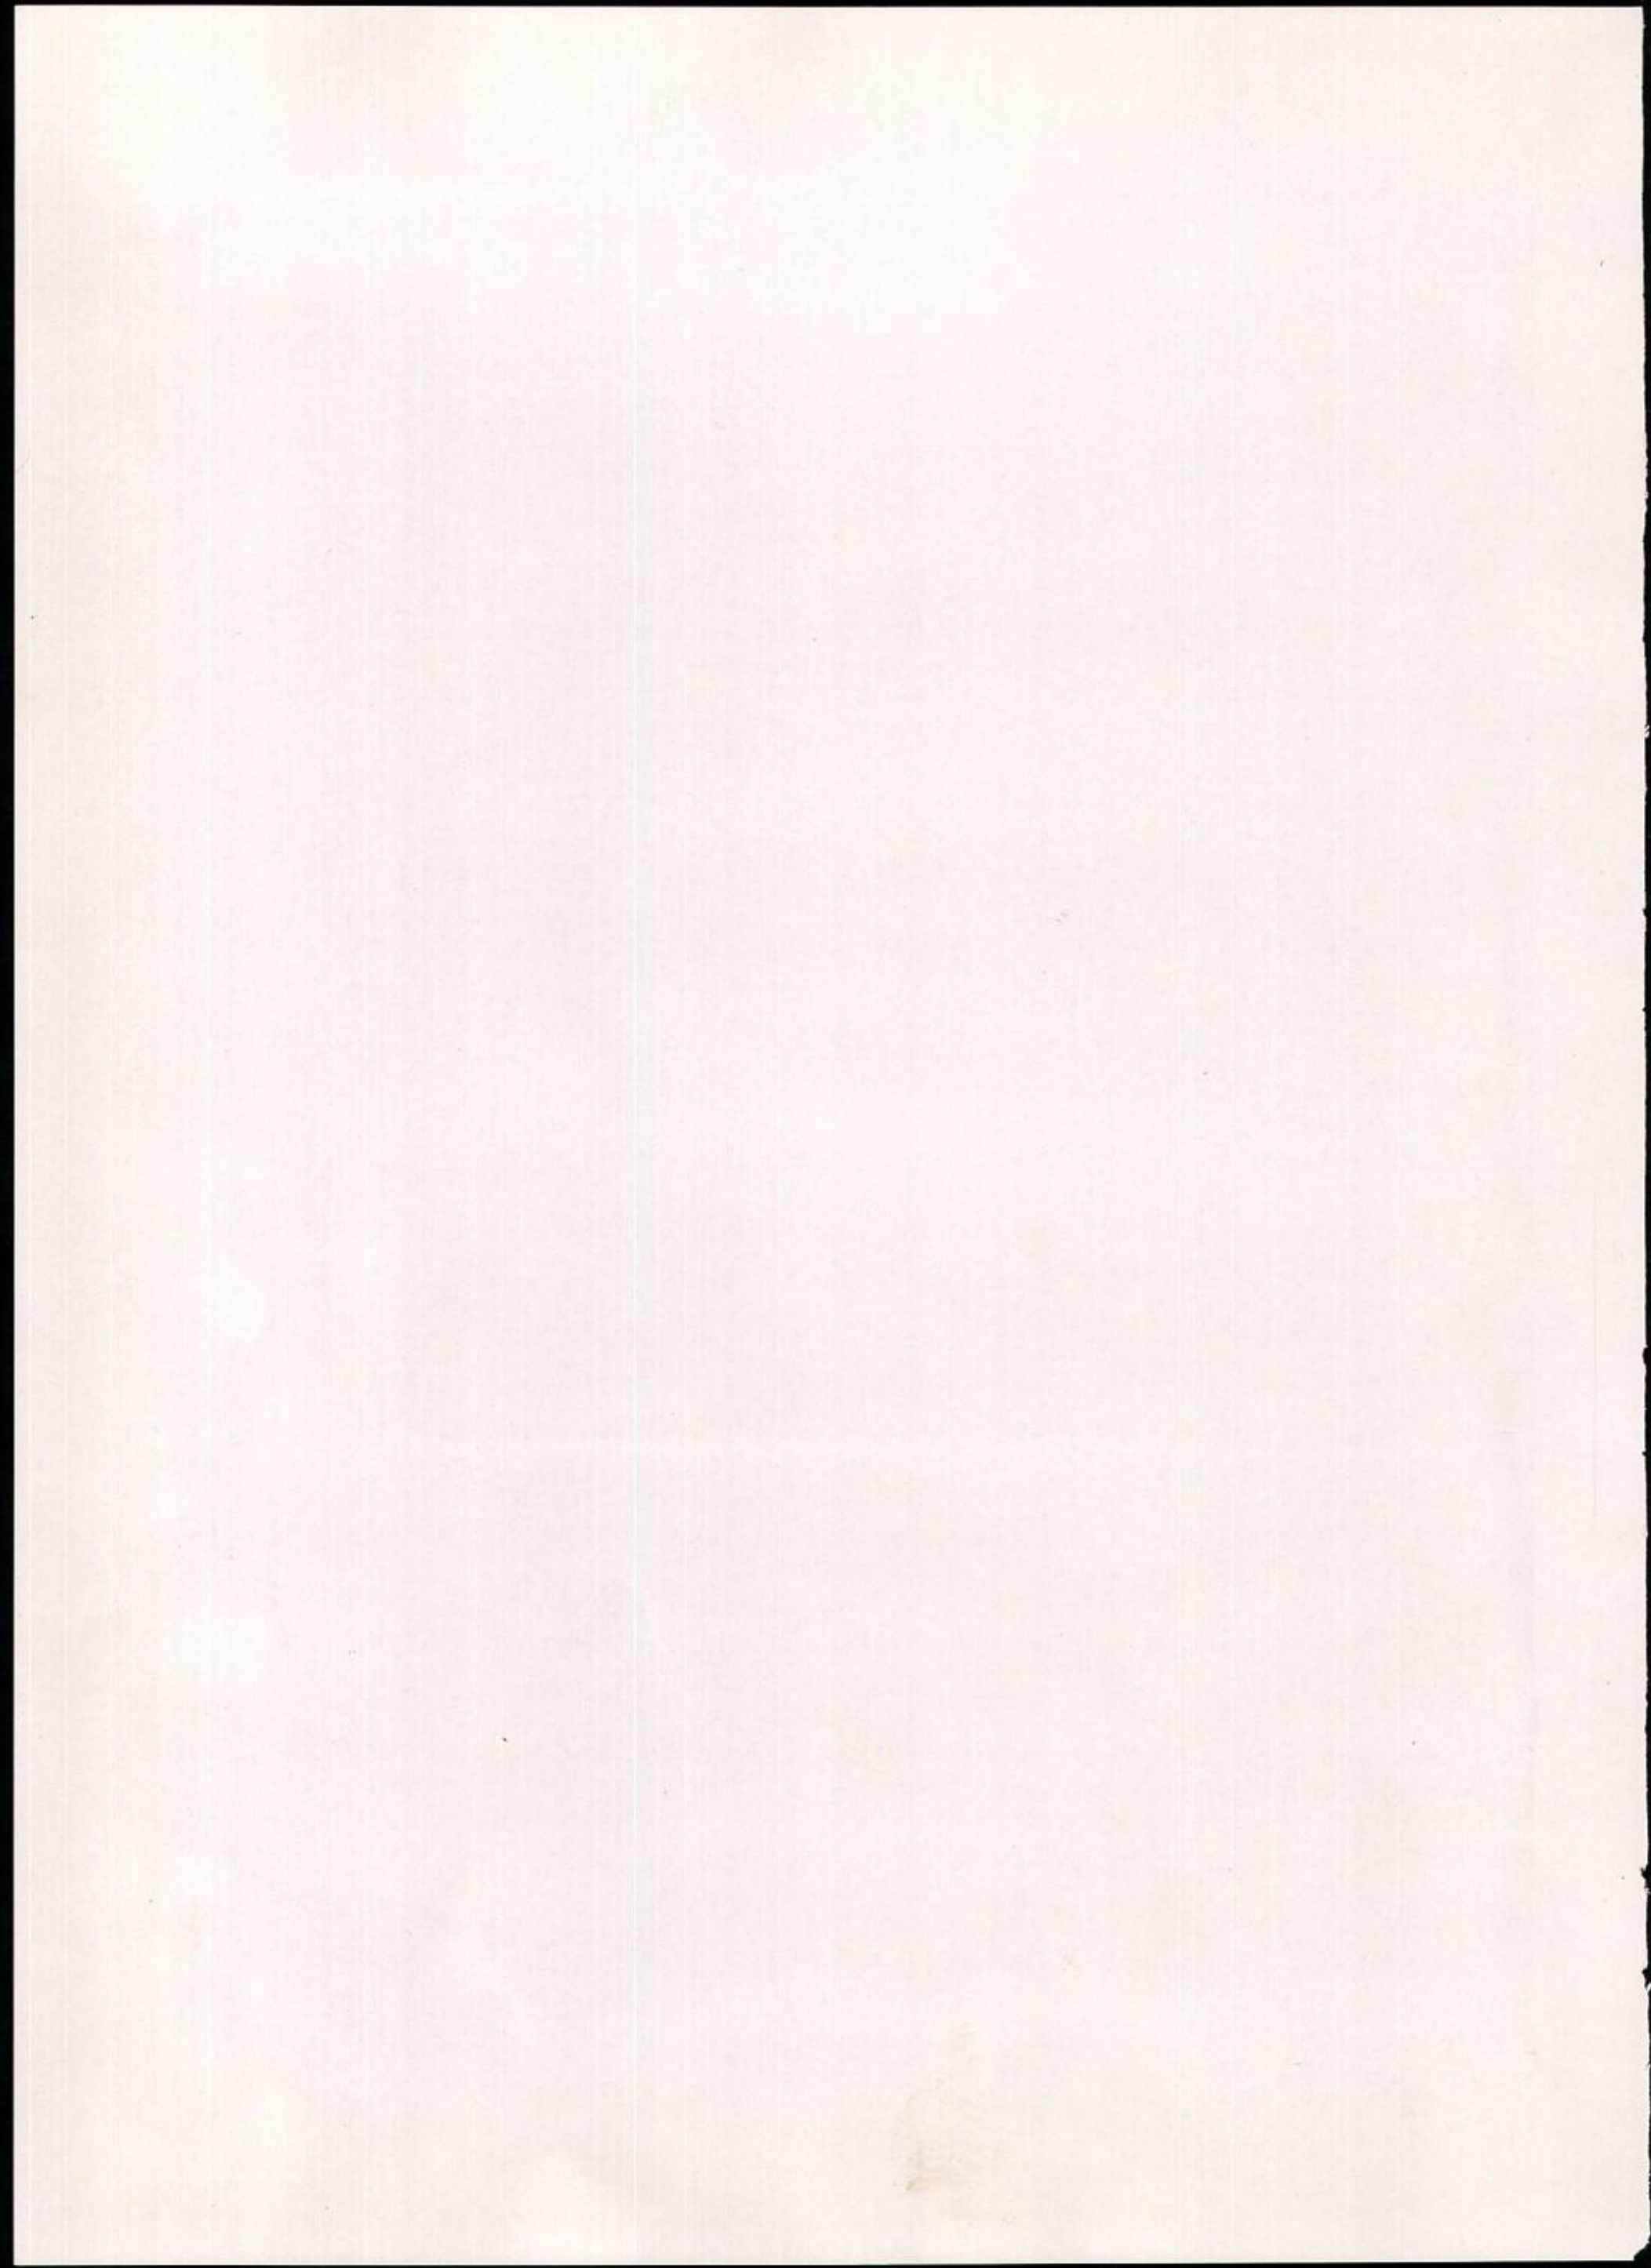

Marjorie Van Anne wills her ability to raise cane to Faye Harms, and her ability to play volley ball to Lorraine Mead.

Keith Warren bequeaths his technique to Stuart Bancroft, and his Ford to Tommy Miller, if he is able to drive an American car.

Jim Willeke wills his "trig" books to Donna Siefer, and his slimness he wills to Judy LeBar.

Dorothy Williams wills her artistic ability to Mary Lou Van Anne.

Don Winkelman wills his ability to play basketball to Gary Harris, and his ability to write mushy notes he bequeaths to Stanley Worth.

Senior Prophecy

Experts have chosen the students of 1956 as the most outstanding class to graduate in the last 10 years.

We find them prospering as follows:

Joetta Davis, the famous Hollywood actress, has just won an Oscar for her performance in "Rebel With a Cause." To the dismay of her many fans, she has announced that she will retire from the movies to become a farmer's wife, since the agents are getting on her nerves.

The pilots seem to be having quite a whirl these days. Ruth Delcamp has just become a stewardess. (She always was rather slow.)

Jerry Dykman has been touring Arabia and has accumulated quite a harem. As a side line, he is raising corn for his pigs back home.

Choosing a rather odd occupation, John Beyers has become a deep sea diver. In one of his latest hunts, he has found a (blub-blub) mermaid who seems to be taking up quite a bit of his time. P.S. Something's Fishy!

Crime does not pay!, as criminals who meet up with Sergeant Coralee Farrington of the 27th precinct, Police Department are finding out. Lately Mickey Spillane has been asking for her suggestions on his new novels.

Marvin Gale has retired from the racing field, to teach his brother, Walt, the tricks of the trade. At last reports, Marv was attending the "chicken fights."

Marjorie Van Anne is now secretary to the National President of the Future Farmers of America. Rumors indicate a personal relationship; as she is constantly feeding his "pet-pigs."

Phyllis has finally made the grade, and is now a great speaker. She is known all over the world to her many friends, as none other than "Windy Harris." She still hasn't run out of things to talk about.

Floyd Hutzenbiller has become a world famous geologist. When he isn't discovering mummies of the underground, Floyd directs his own "hill-billy" plays.

Gerald Klemke is now showing Arthur Murray a few new steps. His school of dancing is well known in all the city of Constantinople. The female sex is entranced with his new dance called the "Russian Wiggle."

Myrna Kragel's ardent song "Hot Rocks" has just entered the top ten. Celebrity chatter indicates she will marry as soon as her latest hit makes the number 1 spot. Christian Dior designs the evening gowns for all her public appearances.

Frances Saathoff is now chief operator of the Bell Telephone office. She is also the proud mother of three red headed boys. Between the two professions, she is kept quite busy.

Donald Winkelman has finally found the girl of his dreams and they are living comfortably on a Nebraska ranch. He is raising hogs, but he seems to be having a terrible time keeping the oil from running into their pens.

Marlyce has been making several trips to Mars lately. It seems Bob has been stationed there for some time. They have built a synthetic rubber house which expands.

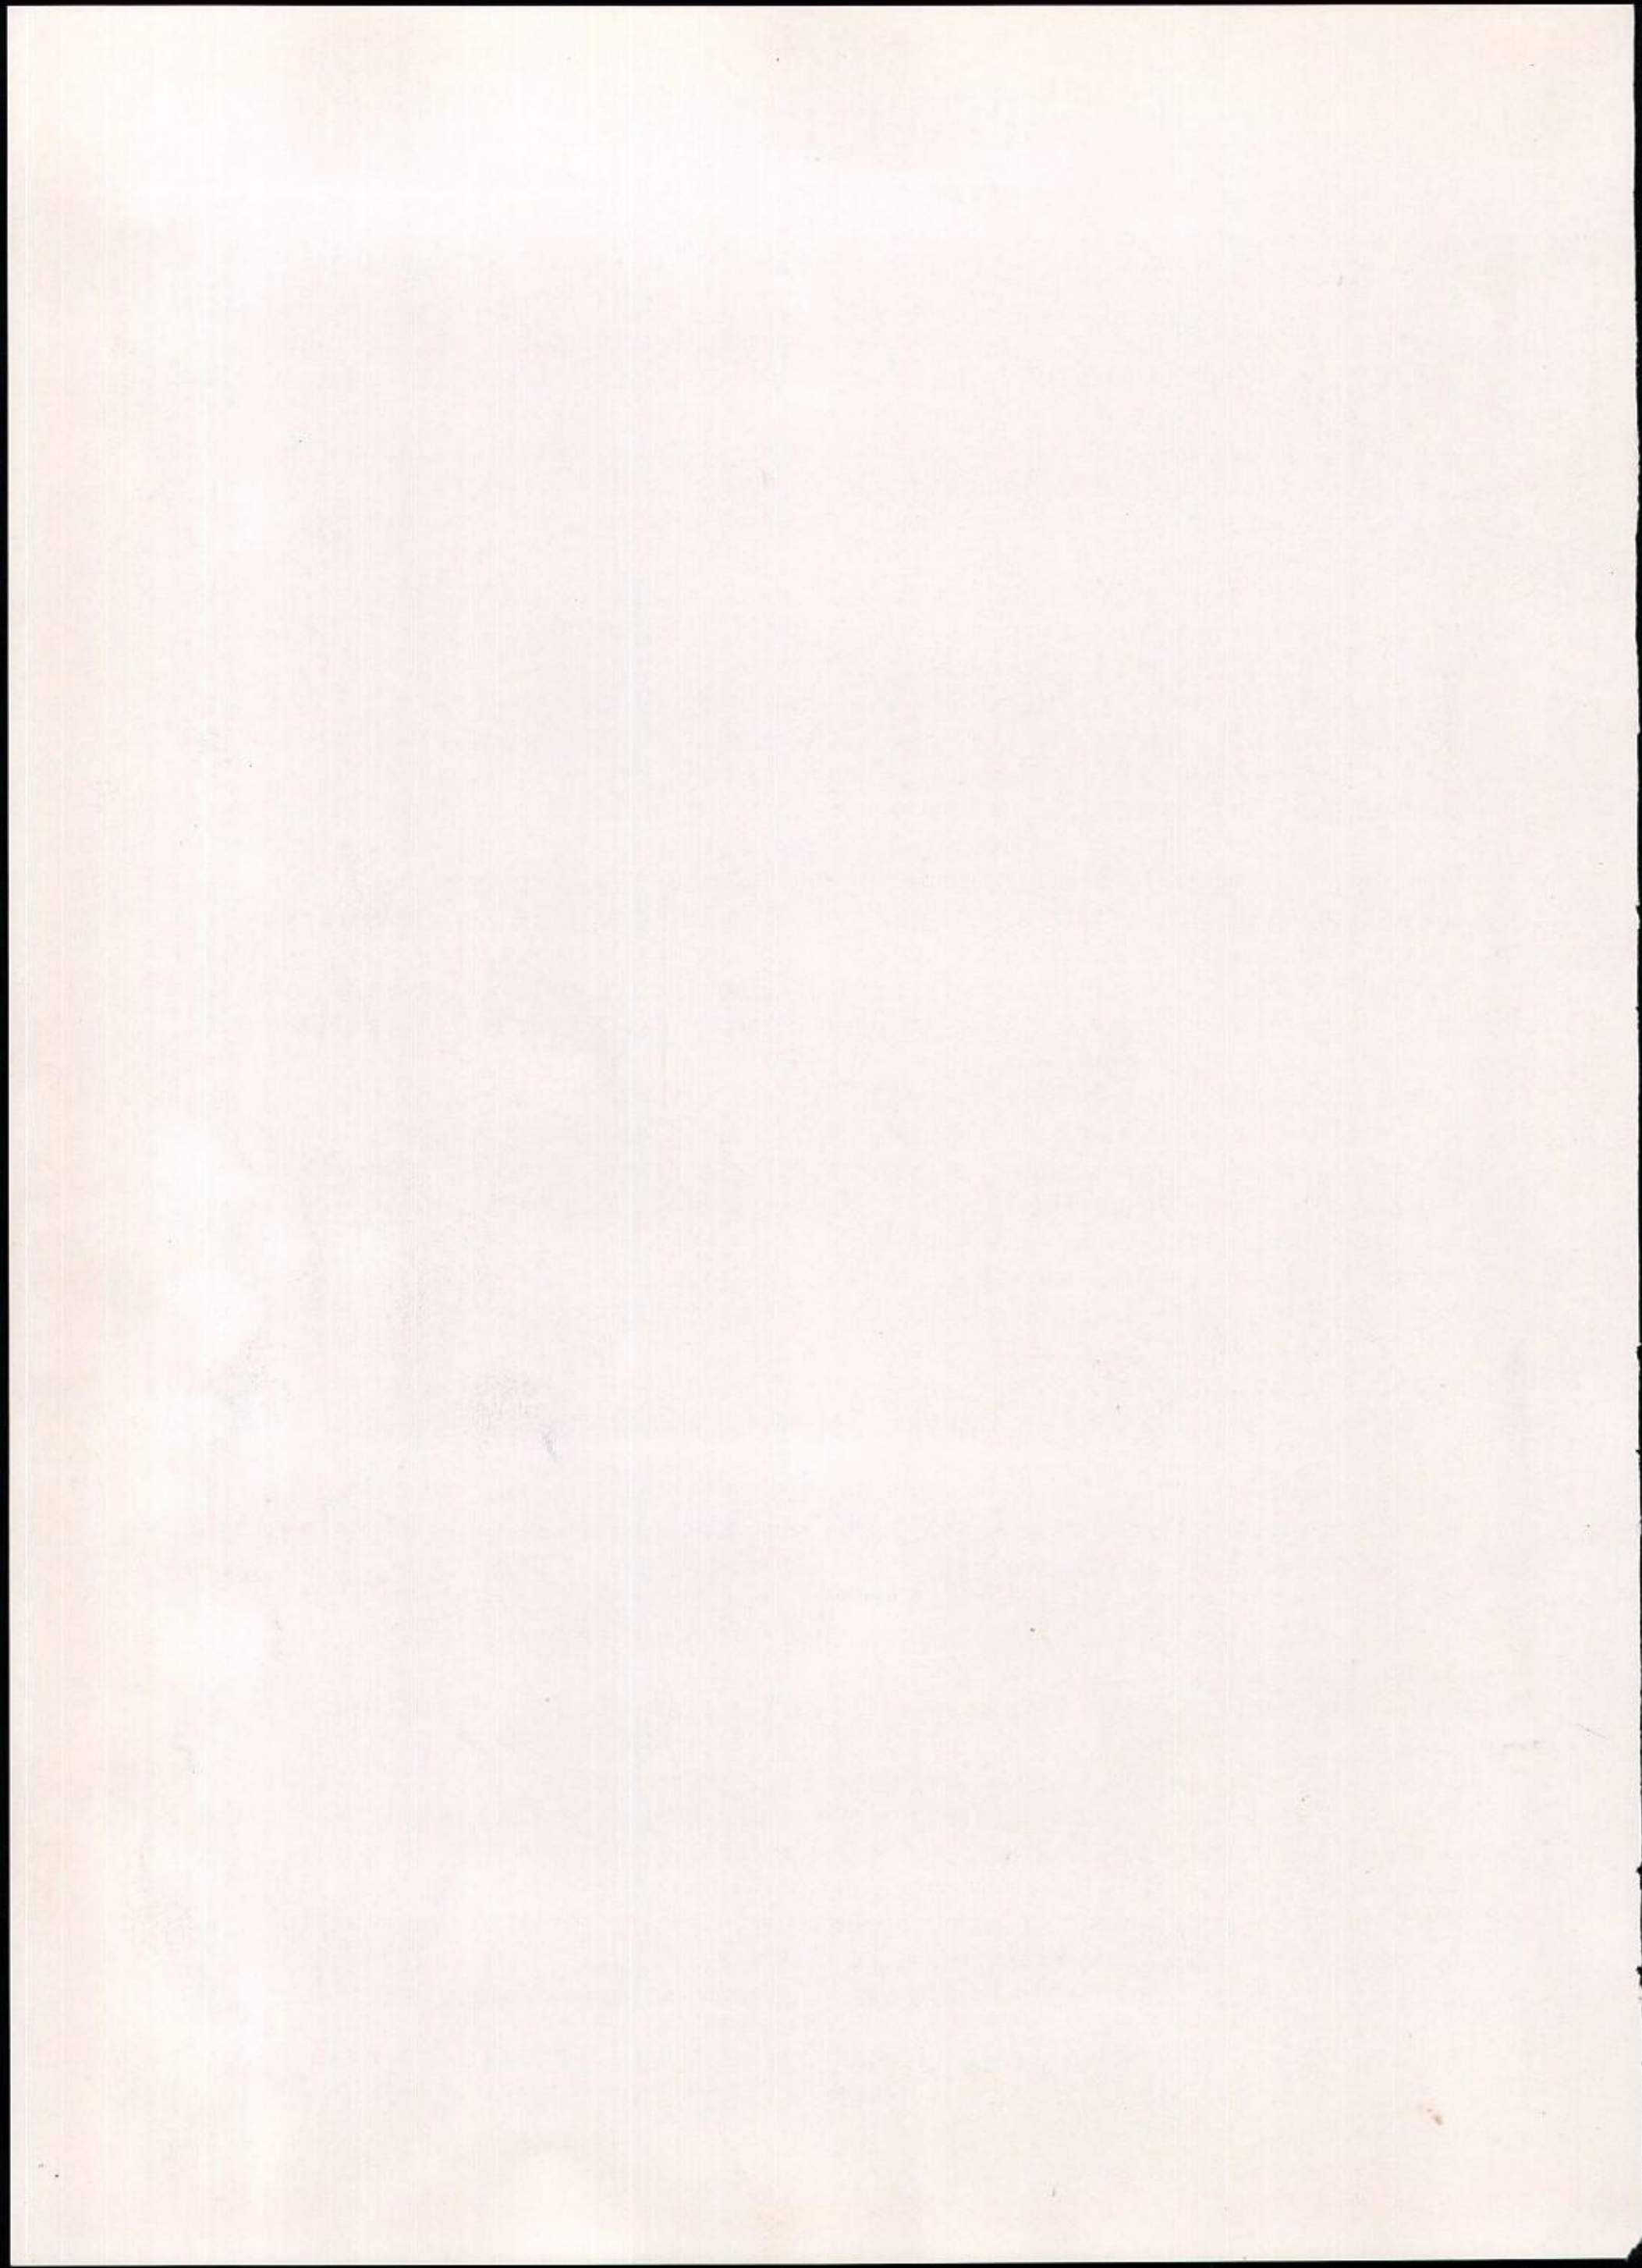

Kenny Lorenz' great, great Grandfather recently made him heir to a million dollars. Obviously enough, he has been given the title "Romeo of This Moon or Bust Age."

George Roberts seems to be a favorite of all his basketball players, although his wife (who was finally chosen after long and diligent research) is the main attraction at the steak feeds that Coach Roberts gives the boys.

In spite of the fact that Keith Warren participated in the Colorado A & M "pantie raid" of 1962, he went ahead to become one of the worlds' most famous engineers.

Dorothy Williams, after many minutes of work, created the picture which made her world famous: "The Comb With Out Teeth." It may be seen at your nearest Drug Store.

While trying to locate John's mermaids, Jim Willeke was swallowed up by a whale. Fishermen bring back the tale that they have seen Jim floating on a whales' spout taking his daily swimming lessons.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Generations of American men and women have been educated in your system of fine public schools. They have wrought achievements grounded in belief in the supreme worth of the individual man, his dignity, his freedom, his capacity to meet the challenge of each new age. Our schools are the backbone of our national defense, the framework of our free enterprise system, and the foundation of a trained and loyal American Citizenship.

Edward Tumbley

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

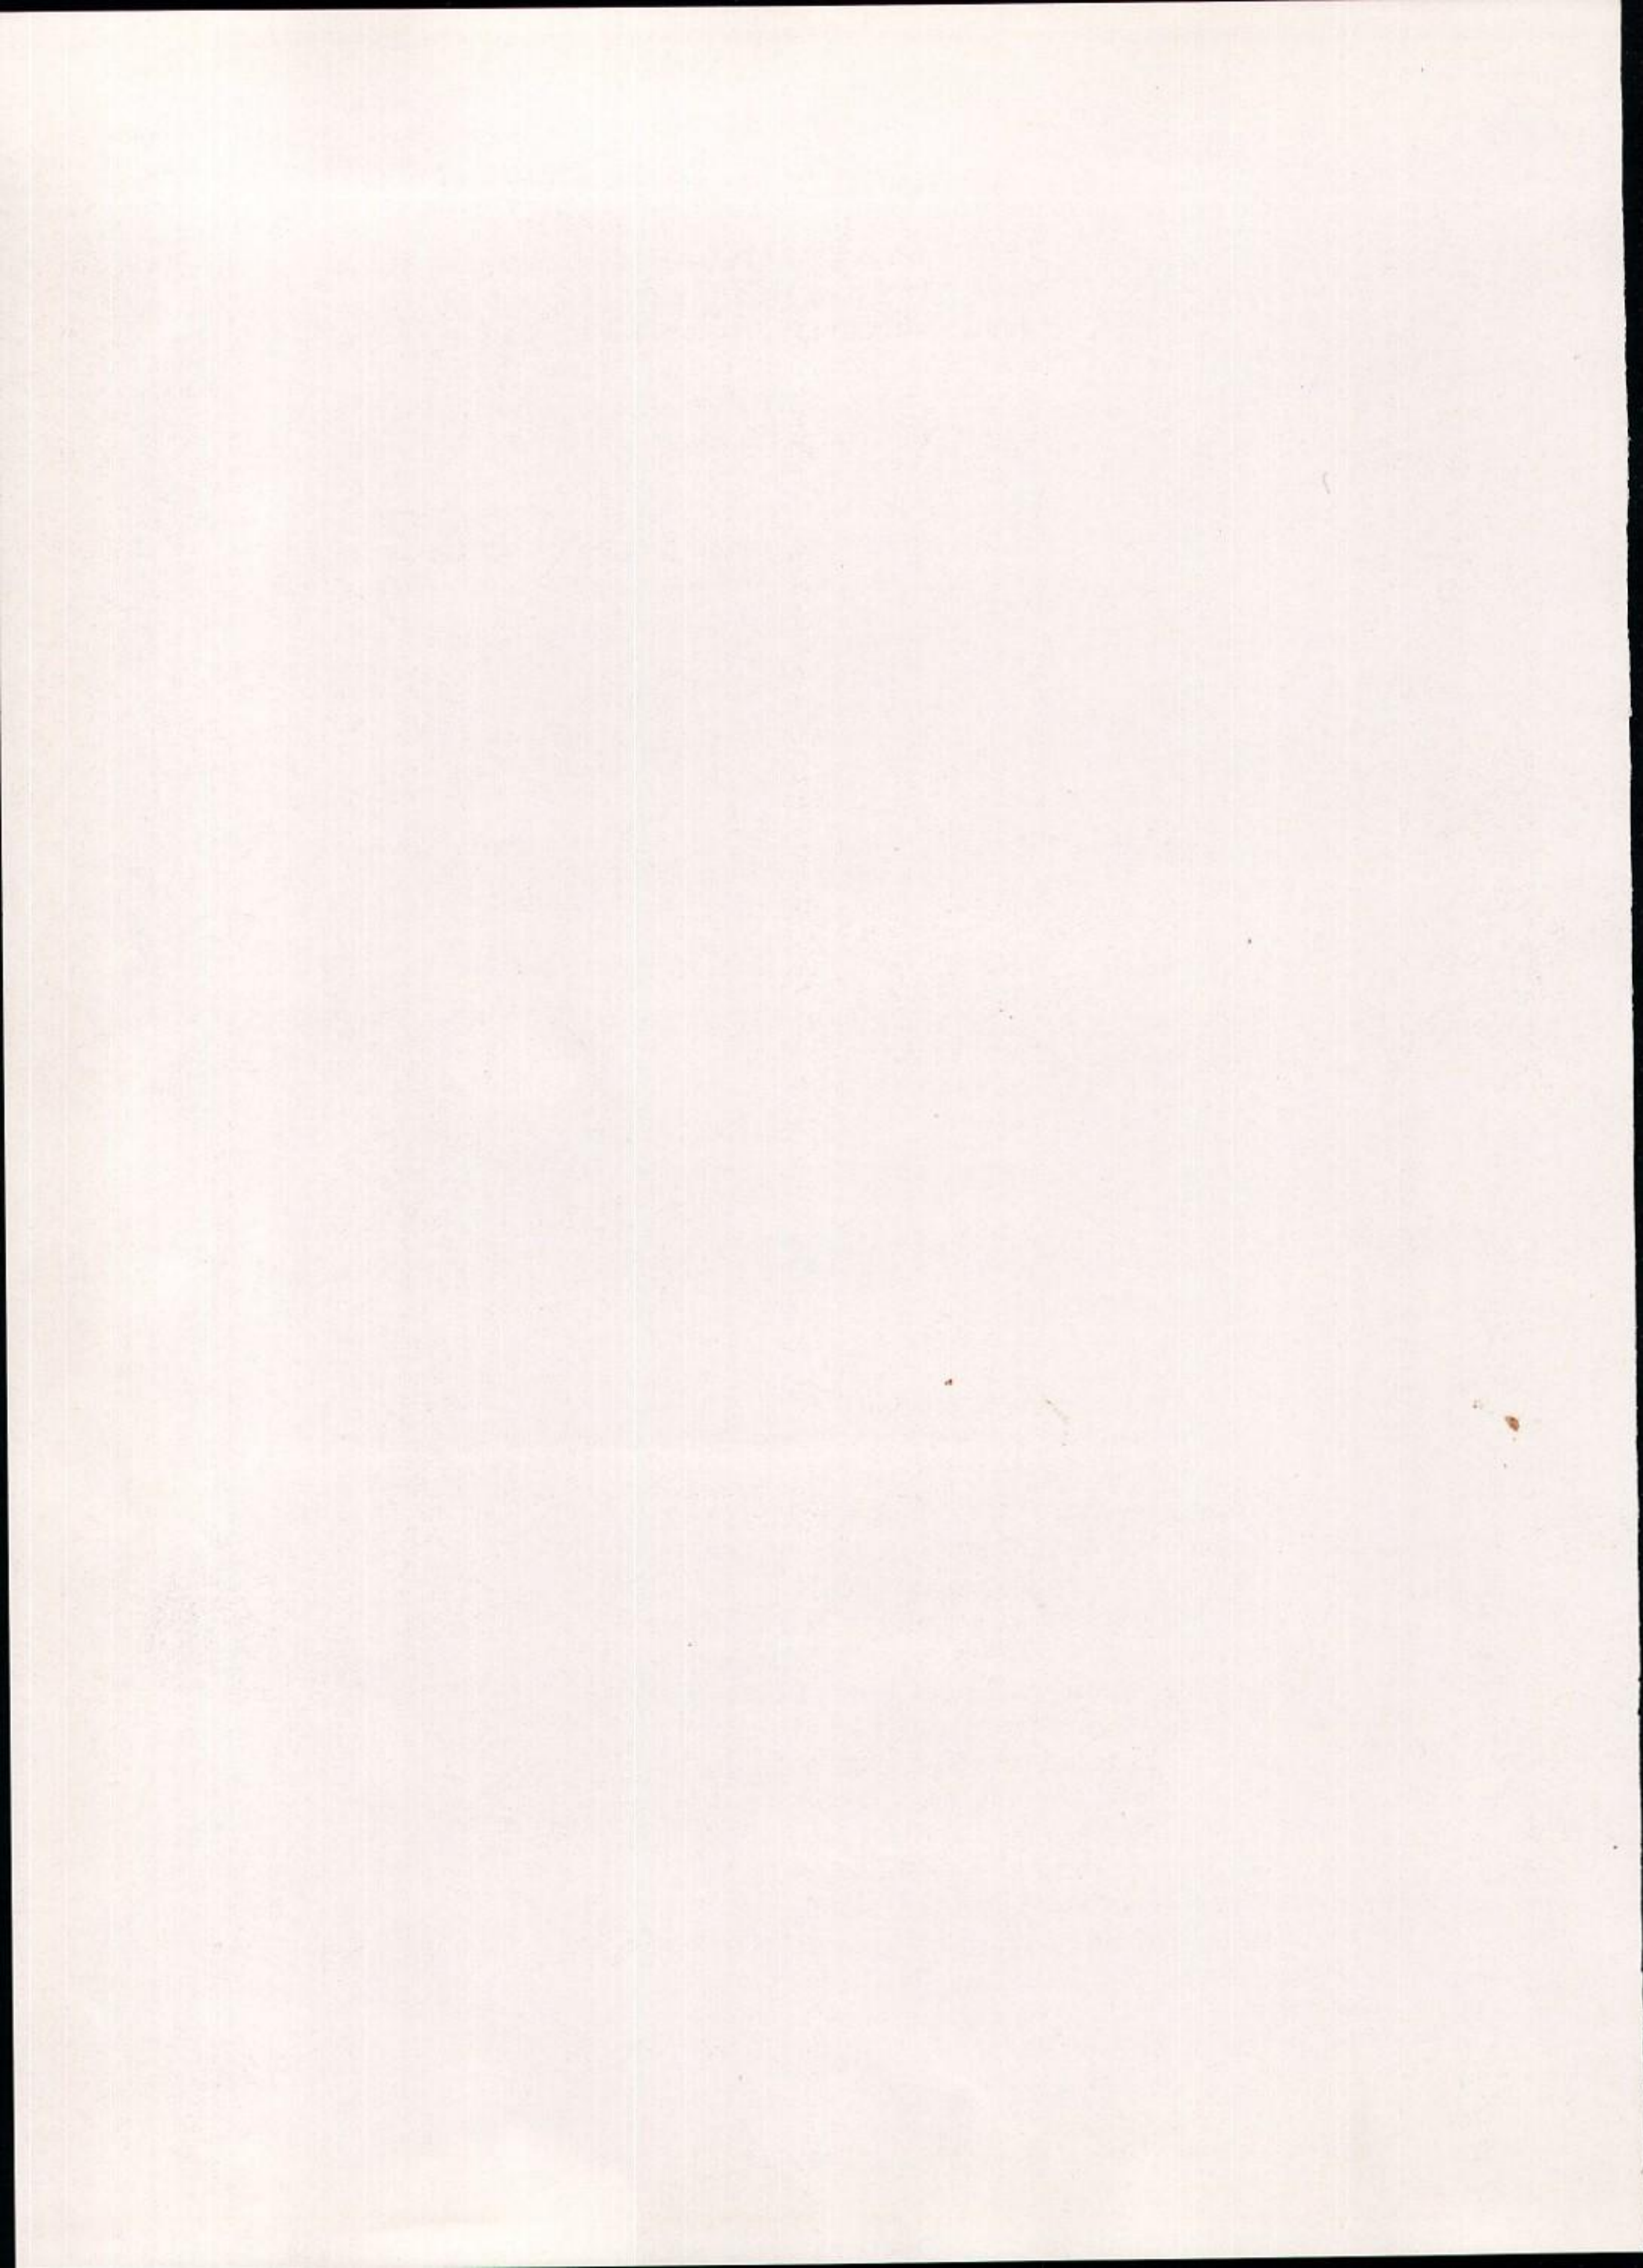

Seize the moment of excited curiosity on any subject to solve your doubts; for if you let it pass, the desire may never return, and you may remain in ignorance!

This philosophy of a former United States Attorney General, William Wirt, challenges Dalton High School Students today. The purpose of education is to arouse intellectual curiosity. The end of education is to discipline the mind and train it to use its own powers.

That our school will arouse intellectual curiosity, will discipline the mind, will awaken a love of truth, will give a just sense of duty and responsibility, will give respect for men and will give enthusiasm for liberty, is my earnest desire.

The football team had an exceptionally good season, winning seven, losing two. Dalton placed second in both the Lodgepole Valley and Oregon Trail Conferences. The up-set of the season was beating Lodgepole, a class "C" school. However, the boys battled to the end in all our games.

It was indeed a privilege working with the boys this year because of the fine co-operation and discipline displayed throughout the season.

The volleyball team had a very successful season playing, including the tournament, a total of 12 games with 9 wins and 3 losses. Until tournament time, the team had only one loss which was with Broadwater score 17-18. Another exciting conference game was with Potter; the final score was 29-21.

During the tournament, the girls played four games, playing against Lorenzo, Broadwater, Lodgepole, and Potter. All sixteen players participated during a part of a game. The team rated fourth place.

Volleyball captain as elected was Winona Wheeler; she was also an outstanding spiker for the team.

The first ten of the team were the following: Marlyce Aurich, Joetta Davis, Ruth Delcamp, Coralee Farrington, Phyllis Harris, Myrna Kragel, Marjorie Van Anne, Mary Lou Van Anne, Winona Wheeler, and Dorothy Williams.
